1. The first set of lines contains the text "The LORD's word is true".

2. The second set of lines contains the text "and he is without deceit".

3. The third set of lines contains the text "and he is without deceit".

4. The fourth set of lines contains the text "and he is without deceit".

5. The fifth set of lines contains the text "and he is without deceit".
